WELCOME TO APD FOODS INDIA PVT LTD

APD Foods, a specialty food ingredient manufacturer was established in the year 2013.

The roots of APD Foods go back to the year 1954, with the emergence of its Parent Co. M/s.

Santosh Ayurvedic Drug Supply Co, one of the finest quality suppliers of Botanical Herbs, Spices & Natural Gums. APD foods take one step forward in utilizing its core strengths and gaining synergy from the vast experience of its parent company. On the leading edge, an extremely talented team backed by strong vendor base of its parent co., APD Foods provides quality service and innovative solutions continually exceeding expectations. Our commitment to safe and efficient global sourcing provides our customers with superior quality products and very competitive pricing.

Quality, Safety and Efficiency are key drivers in our value chain system. We understand and believe each of these elements plays a vital role in terms of sustainability of the business, desirability of the products and acceptance of our services. At APD Foods we have the expertise to mitigate risk and improve efficiency at every stage of the value chain from procurement of the raw material till the dispatch of the finished goods.

At the heart of APD foods there is Consistency, Determination and Integrity. In addition, we do what we say; we deliver what we promise; and in the process we are working hard if we can over-deliver. We are customer-centric organization focused on delivering high quality specialty food ingredients. We work closely with our partners to understand their business requirements and align our business goals to achieve their corporate objectives.

Our Objective is Simple...to become your first choice as a premium food ingredient supplier.
