

NordRelease® Cordyceps Organic Extract

Standardised Cordyceps Extract for Energy Metabolism & Physical Performance

NordRelease® Cordyceps Organic Extract is a high-potency, standardised extract developed to support cellular energy metabolism and physical performance. Rich in bioactive compounds such as cordycepin and adenosine, it contributes to energy production, aerobic capacity (VO<sub>2</sub> max), and physiological endurance.

Adenosine plays a key role in cellular energy systems, while cordycepin is associated with metabolic activity linked to ATP production, supporting endurance, oxygen utilisation, and reduced fatigue.
