Let's grow together.

We like to support your business

Onions, pickles and other vegetables from TOP are found all over the world year-round processed or unprocessed. We take great pleasure in meeting the demands of food processing companies and growers. The fact that we both grow and process the crops ourselves creates endless possibilities. Discover TOP!

What business are you in?

Recipes, varieties, delivery schedules, packaging, assortments & processing; what are your specific requirements? We will gladly respond to your needs. As we grow, process and export our own products, the possibilities in meeting your demands are endless. This makes us unique in the business. What is your line of business?

Let's grow together

As a family company, we have been a strategic and reliable partner to customers across the globe, for over 30 years. We are strategic, as we contribute to the continuity of your production and sales. We are reliable, because we have proven what we stand for daily: we honour our commitments. By working together closely, we are both successful. Let's grow together.
